

This is Alice Cooper from a syndicated radio program called Studio Jam. Even though it says Studio Jam, it is a live recording from a venue (usually Chicago where the show was based out of) but I have no idea where this is from. It may be the same recording as the King Biscuit 1979 from San Diego with a different mix, but I have no idea. I have both (I will seed the pre-fm KBFH show one of these days) and I never took the time to really compare the 2. There is a couple different songs between the 2 shows so they are both worth having (not to mention the sound is pretty good too!)

By the way for all you Elton fans - this has Davey Johnstone on guitar.

The reel is a 10" 7.5 ips 1/2 track tape. It was transferred on a Tascam BR-20T to a Sony CDR-W33 stand alone professional cd recorder. Transferred to wav and spilt via cdwav.
This has a short interview at the end...and promo beds.
