

David Murray
"Plays Nat King Cole en Espanol"
Antwerp Belgium
Jazz Middelheim 2009-08-16

David Murray prepared a special project for Jazz Middelheim 2009, he plays Nat King Cole 'en Español', a tribute to the Spanish repertoire of Nat King Cole. It is always a risk to bring together three worlds on one stage: the roots of black tradition and jazz, the Cuban Jazz en the classical string section of the filharmonic. With beautiful arrangements, Murray succeeds in bringing to life the mood of the 50's. With a sometimes yelling saxophone - that replaces the vocals that everyone knows - the performance gets a contemporary and surprising sound. A very festive closing act for Jazz Middelheim 2009.

FM->AVS Audio Recorder->WAV->CDWave
Editor (Tracking)->TLH->FLAC(8).
I applied light hiss reduction (CEP)

David Murray (tenorsax, bass clarinet, composition), Orlando Sanchez Soto (tenorsax), Roman Filiu O'Reily (altsax), Denis Cuni Rodriguez (trombone), Elpidio Chappotin (trumpet), Yasek Manzano (trumpet), José Rivero (piano), Angel Gaston Joya Perellada (contrabass), Enrique Roman Pla Garcia (drums), Adel Gonzalez Gomez (percussion), String section of the Filharmonic Orchestra.

Setlist (excuses for my poor Spanish)

01. Intro
02. El Bodeguero
03. Tres Palabras
04. Piel Canela
05. ? (could it be "Ansiedad"?)
06. Cachito
07. Quizas Quizas Quizas
08. Encore : Aqui Se Habla En Amor

www.myspace.com/davidmurraymusic

Upped by grateful_c2d

David Murray

"Plays Nat King Cole en Espanol"

Jazz Middelheim
Antwerp, Belgium
August 16, 2009