Here it is at last, the legendary BBC "In Concert" from Gordon Lightfoot. The concert was originally shown in two parts, part 1 on 22nd Jan 72 and part two on 5th feb 72. As far as I am aware this is the first rebroadcast since 1972. You've probably already seen the clip of "If You Could Read My Mind" on "Singer-Songwriters At The BBC", well the rest of the concert is of an equally high standard and is wonderful to see again. Gordon is joined onstage by guitarist Red Shea and bassist Richard Haynes. Enjoy the show! - fisheye, March 2011, DIME
