

JUDY GARLAND
The Last American Concert

live at J.F.K. Stadium, Philadelphia, Pa. July 20, 1968.

- Transfer from the bootleg vinyl titled "7/20/68: The Last Concert"
- This was Judy's last American performance.
- 2 versions of this show circulate. The version used on this vinyl release was taken from the line reference dub from the sound booth. The 2nd version is an audience recording and more complete, including an additional 5 songs or so.
- There is audible vinyl crackles throughout, so if that's something that will bother you, you may want to pass on this. I think it is enjoyable regardless. - kanzan, November 2010
