First I'll just mention the non compliant GOP rate. This one was authored in IFOEdit and therefore this GOP rate remains as broadcast. It will not be a fully compliant PAL DVD so if in doubt try a rewriteable first.

A BBC2 documentary narrated by Mark Radcliffe and broadcast as part of a Robert Plant themed evening featuring the Band of Joy Electric Proms performance. "Robert Plant discusses his musical journey from Stourbridge, the British blues boom, superstardom with Led Zeppelin in the 70s, to the Band of Joy album. He also looks at his work with The Honeydrippers and North African musicians, his reunion with Jimmy Page, and his pairing with Alison Krauss."
