The mastering and sound quality of this release is absolutely superb, even better than the regular USA issue!! Crystal clear sound!
Contains all the music of film, chronologically ordered, plus some very special bonus tracks like "I Dream't Music" piece in the Love Theme
- the legendary "Alternate Love Theme" and the unreleased trailer by Robert Randles. The most interesting new discovery for Blade Runner fans is an alternate music track by John Williams on the movie scene "Tears in Rain", never available on any previous editions and composed at the time when Vangelis' involvement in this score was not sure!

The CD is "Dedicated to the memory of Philip K Dick". CD also contains other music that is not to be found on the USA, Off World, nor the Gongo Romanian issue."

"To be honest, this release is virtually identical to its predecessor, Deck Music (a.k.a. Memoires 7). In this regard, it's certainly a wonderful melange of music, sounds, textures and atmosphere from the film Blade Runner. This release is a supposed re-mastered version of the Deck Music release. I have listened closely with headphones and there is a slight improvement in terms of sound over the Deck Music release, although the difference is minimal, at best.
This new release also has a few extras not present on its predecessor: The full version of the "alternate Love Theme" from the Blade Runner work print (as heard on Themes II). However, more interestingly, it has the alternate John Williams temp music for Batty's Tears in Rain monologue. The last track is an audio version of the film's trailer. - Sebastian
