Linda Ronstadt - "I've been very irreverent about any old arrangements. We just do them however we like to do them. In years past, I've always made an effort to make sure my arrangements sounded exactly like the record, but I don't care about that anymore. Whatever song I still like to sing, I'm really happy to put it back together again with different instrumentation and see what we find in it."

Lineup: Sam Bush Band - Jon Randall Stewart on guitar, Bryon House on bass and Chris White on drums.
