

The Karen Carpenter Story (TV) 1989
added by mrrjburton

Story of the meteoric rise and sudden fall of Karen Carpenter, who became a famous singer before battling anorexia and bulimia.

Although I think this made for TV bio of Karen Carpenter is average at best, the movie does show how the Carpenters rose to fame during the early 70's. I really love Karen Carpenter's angelic voice and I sometimes get chills up the spine hearing it. What a talent.

If you like the Carpenters you will like Close to You, Remembering the Carpenters where you will see the real Karen Carpenter. I will be uploading that one in a day.
