I don't usually source shows that are not from my masters, but this is an exception. I just got this from a UK Eric Clapton collector who follows the Japanese bootleg releases. This recording of the first Budokan show of 1976 Japanese Tour is from a previously uncirculated master. This is a recent release from the apparently exclusive Tarantura label and is supposed to be direct from the original cassette masters. Zuma11 seeded the 3-3-76 Nagoya show a few weeks ago and this Budokan show is supposedly from the same taper.

The sound is very good. I've been told this is better than the Nagoya show but I think I prefer the Nagoya.
