

ABBA's All Time Greatest Hits

Channel: Seven

Friday, 9 May 2008 - 9:00pm

90 minutes

ABBA created and performed some of the greatest pop songs in history: Mamma Mia, Waterloo, The Winner Takes It All, Super Trouper, and of course Dancing Queen. But how good were they really? Features local and international celebrities sharing what the Swedish supergroup means to them, including U2's Bono, entertainer Donny Osmond, Sunrise's David Koch, musical entertainer Rhonda Birchmore, entrepreneur Malcolm McLaren, ABBA tribute band Bjorn Again, singer/songwriter Neil Sedaka, '60s pop icon Lulu and music guru Molly Meldrum.
