

Prog 1 Live At Budokan 1974. This is taken from the official laserdisc release.
Prog 2 This Is Your Life, 1970 TV show featuring the Carpenters. Unreleased.
Video Ex-; Audio Ex SBD stereo/mono.

This is an item unique to Japan — a complete concert video! And, while it may look the same as the album Live in Japan, it is not the same concert, although it was filmed during the same concert tour.

The reason it was not released worldwide is that there are Japanese subtitles on the screen throughout the concert. The master tape of the concert without the subtitles apparently no longer exists, so they had to use this broadcast master as the source video.

This is an extremely important document in the history of the Carpenters' career, so it is well worth seeking out!

The DVD version of this is identical to the LaserDisc - no bonus material at all. It is a region 2 DVD, so it will not play on DVD players outside Japan unless you have a multi-region DVD player.
