

THE SHADOWS
Birmingham NIA, UK
14 May 2005

In the summer of 2004 The Shadows played their final concert at the London Palladium.....

....then in 2005 they extended the tour, ending it with two "encore concerts" in England at the Birmingham NIA.

This is the first of those 2 shows.

The Shadows are touring into 2010 with Cliff Richard in the 50th Anniversary Tour - part of that show includes a Shadows "mini set".

To date, the two encore concerts are the last full-concert Shadows-headlined performances.

Recorded slightly right of centre stage, 4th row. Shared by DannyS on Dime, Nov 2009.
